

Thursdays @ 12:30 in 2270C

Seminars & Workshops – Fall 2017 in Lawson Hall 2270C (*unless noted)

Research Seminar Series

Professional Development Workshops for Grad Students

McCaffrey Graduate Research Series

September 14	Things We Wish Someone Had Told Us: Why You Need Professional Development Workshops History Faculty Members
September 21	We are an African People: Re-centering Africa in Twentieth Century Black Liberation Tunde Adeleke (Iowa State University)
Tuesday* , September 26 Starts at 11:30 a.m.*	Teaching across Cultures, Languages, and Generations Paul Schmidt (Writing Support Centre), Cary Takagaki, Chris White (PhD candidate) and Shane Roberts (MA student)
October 5	How, When, and Why to Apply for a Grant Laurel Shire and Robert Wardhaugh
October 12	Reading Week.
October 19	Imposter Syndrome Francine McKenzie and Shelley McKellar
October 26	Witnesses and Go-betweens: Canadian Missionaries and the March 1919 Independence Movement in Korea Carl Young
November 2	Protecting the Nuclear Family: A Gendered Analysis of Canada's 1968 Divorce Act Robyn Schwarz (PhD candidate)
November 9	Best Bets for Beating Stress: Mental, Physical, and Environmental Wellness Practices Melanie-Anne Atkins (Wellness Education Centre)
November 16	Ukrainian Revolutions 1990, 2004-2005, and 2013-2014: Media as the Key to Understanding of the Post-Soviet World Serhiy Kvit (National University of the Kyiv Mohyla Academy)
November 23	A Marathon, not a Sprint: Canada and South African Apartheid, 1984-1990 Dan Manulak (PhD candidate)
November 30	Responding to Student Writing (Efficiently and Fairly) Eli Nathans and Jonathan Vance
Tuesday* , December 5	TVA on the Fraser: How American Regionalism Shaped Post-war Vancouver Zack Taylor (Political Science).
December 7	Please attend Reflections on Canada's Sesquicentennial on December 7 at The Great Hall from 8:30 am to 4:15 pm.