

Thursdays @ 12:30 in 2270C

Seminars & Workshops – Winter 2018 in Lawson Hall 2270C (*unless noted)

Research Seminar Series

Professional Development Workshops for Grad Students

McCaffrey Graduate Research Series

January 11	What I Learned Talking About History on YouTube Tristan Johnson (PhD candidate, Western)
January 18	Self-Care and Mental Health Melanie-Anne Atkins (Wellness Education Centre, Western)
January 25	Re-narrating the History of Women's Suffrage in Canada Joan Sangster (Gender & Women's Studies, Trent University)
February 1	Christmas Goes to War: The American Holiday in World War II Samantha Desroches (PhD candidate, Western)
February 8	Teaching with Digital Tools: Quick, Fun Ways to Get Students Engaged in Tutorial (open to visiting students considering entering our graduate programs) Digital History Lab Group
February 15	Copyrighting the English Reformation: Print, Theft, and Madness, 1685-1730 Bill Acres (History, Western)
February 22	Reading Week. No Thursdays @ 12:30 event.
March 1	The Architects of Investor-State Law and Arbitration: Building a Not-So-Spontaneous Order Todd Weiler (PhD candidate, Western)
March 8	Alumni Advice and Inspiration: You Will Get a Job, and It will Have a Salary, and You Will Probably Even Like It Graduate Alumni of Our Programs
March 15	Telling Neighbourhood Stories: Geo-locating History in the St. George-Grosvenor-Piccadilly Neighbourhood Mark Tovey (Post-doc, Western)
March 22	Engineering the Sands: A History of Early Technological Development in Alberta's Oil Sands Shane Roberts (MA student, Western)
March 29	Social Wellness: How to Take Care of Yourself and Each Other Melanie-Anne Atkins (Wellness Education Centre, Western)