

Digital History Lab

Open Lab Meeting

26 October 2:30-3:30pm
at Lawson 1227

Come meet us and see some of what we do! We will have folks on hand who can talk about Mathematica, DevonThink, book scanning, GIS mapping and more. Everyone is welcome to attend. If you're thinking about joining us this year, this is a great intro to Digital Humanities work.

Open Lab For The Centenary

27 October 1:00-3:00pm
at Lawson 2270 (the DH Lab)

Come and see what some of the DHers on campus have been up to - including Evan Habkirk's WWI project (www.doingourbit.ca) and post-doc Mark Tovey's Neighbourhood History of London Community.

Book Scanner Training

3 November 11:30am-3:30pm
at Lawson 2270 (the DH lab)

Bring a book you'd like to scan, and we'll teach you how to use the scanner. Please note that just as with the photocopier in the department office, you must adhere to the rules of copyright and fair use when you scan.
