

David H. Swankie Jr Award in History (valued at $4,300)

Awarded annually to a student in one of the final two years of an Honors Bachelor degree with either an Honors Specialization in History or a double Major including History. Candidates must have achieved grades in the top third of their program and a grade of at least 80% in one course in United States History. Candidates must also be of good character and demonstrate this by their involvement in extracurricular activities and show promise for distinguished achievement after graduation. Any candidate is eligible to receive this award only once and must not be a current recipient of any other awards or scholarships at the time of selection. Applications can be obtained online or in the Department of History, Lawson Hall room 2201 and must be submitted, along with a short essay. The Faculty of Social Science, in consultation with the Department of History, will select the recipient. This award was established through Foundation Western to honour the memory of UWO alumnus David H. Swankie Jr. (BA 1977, Economics & Certificate of Honors Standing 1978, History & MBA 1980).

Applications are available in the Department of History or online at http://history.uwo.ca/undergraduate/awards\_\_scholarships/index.html
