

Department of History
Western

CENTENARY

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2017 LAWSON HALL

The History Department is celebrating its centenary in 2017. On Friday, October 27, there will be a celebration of the department and a commemoration of the way Western faculty and students have contributed to our understanding of the past, especially Canada's history.

As 2017 is also the sesquicentennial of Canada, we are organizing three events that connect Western's History Department and 150 years of Canadian history: Greatest (Dead) Canadian Competition, Historians Between Two Ferns, and an Historical Knowledge Contest.

1:00 - 1:30 WELCOME GATHERING AND CAKE
LAWSON HALL MAIN FOYER

1:15 - 1:30 SHORT TOUR OF LAWSON HALL (2 FLOORS)
LAWSON HALL 2270D

1:30 - 2:30 GREATEST (DEAD) CANADIAN COMPETITION
LAWSON HALL 2205

2:30 - 3:00 VISIT THE MEDICAL ARTIFACT COLLECTION
LAWSON HALL 2260

2:30 - 3:00 VISIT THE DIGITAL HISTORY LAB
LAWSON HALL 2270B

3:00 - 3:15 JAMES J. TALMAN ROOM DEDICATION
TALMAN ROOM (LAWSON HALL 1218)

3:15 - 4:00 HISTORIANS BETWEEN TWO FERNS
TALMAN ROOM (LAWSON HALL 1218)

4:00 HISTORICAL KNOWLEDGE CONTEST
LAWSON HALL MAIN FOYER

HISTORICAL EXHIBITS ON DISPLAY

For more details, please visit history.uwo.ca/100

For a campus accessibility map, please visit: accessibility.uwo.ca/resources/maps/index.html.

For more information, please e-mail: history-inquiries@uwo.ca.

Western  SocialScience