

EVENTS IN HISTORY- WINTER 2020

Seminars & Workshops - Lawson 2270C (*unless noted)

January 23	12:30pm	(RSS) David Meren Settler Colonialism in Geneva: Indigenous Rights, the International Labour Organization and Canada
January 30	12:30pm	(PDW) Moderated by Eli Nathan Discussions with alumni of the PhD and MA Programs in History, American Studies, and Public History – Part 1: Pursuing a career outside of academia.
February 6	12:30pm	(McC) Erin Brown Tranquilize Your Mind: Drug Use, Gender, and the Middle Class in America, 1955-1970
February 13	12:30pm	(RSS) Adam Bohnet Taxation, Corruption and Social Mobility in Eighteenth Century Choson - the Case of Pak Toch'ang - Slave, Intermediary and Profiteer
February 27	12:30pm	(PDW) TBD Public Speaking for historians
March 3	2:30pm	Talman Lectures - David Koffman Unsettling Ethnic History: Jewish-Indigenous Encounters in Canada Conron Hall, UC 3110
March 5	12:30pm	(McC) Kenny Reilly Plant Kudzu Seeds Up Nawth: The Spread of Kudzu in the North
March 11	6:30pm	Elly Gotz 75 Years Since Liberation from Dachau Arts & Humanities Building 1R40 (RSS) Wes Kinghorn
March 12	12:30pm	A Hidden History: Gentrification, Displacement and Change in Four London, Ontario Heritage Conservation Districts (HCDs) Keynote Speaker: Prof. Donica Belisle
March 13-14	TBA	Eating Whiteness: Rogers Sugar, Racism, and the Making of "Canadian" Cane.
March 19	12:30pm	(PDW) Moderated by Eli Nathans Discussions with alumni of the PhD and MA Programs in History, American Studies, and Public History– Part 2: Pursuing a career in academia.
March 26	12:30pm	(McC) Sara Poulin Beyond Anyone's Comprehension: Canada and the Liberation of the Nazi Concentration Camps (RSS) Robert Ventresca
April 2	12:30pm	Of Silences, Secrets and Sources: New Directions in Research on the Vatican and the Holocaust