

EVENTS IN HISTORY- FALL 2020

Seminars & Workshops - via ZOOM

- | | | |
|--------------|---------|---|
| September 10 | 12:30pm | (PDW)
Being a Graduate Student During the COVID Pandemic |
| September 17 | 12:30pm | (RSS) Janice Forsyth
Living with the past: Using archives and oral history to write a story of the present |
| September 24 | 12:30pm | (McC) Sara Poulin
Serving Beyond the Call: Allied Jewish Chaplains and the Liberation of the Concentration Camps |
| October 1 | 12:30pm | (PDW)
Teaching and Discussion Leading Online |
| October 8 | 12:30pm | (RSS) Rob Ventresca
Religion in Mass Violence and Genocide: New Directions in Research |
| October 15 | 12:30pm | (McC)Brigette Farrell
Psychology and the Soldier: An Analysis of First World War Canadian Soldiers with Shell Shock and Neurasthenia. |
| October 22 | 12:30pm | (PDW)
Responding to Student Writing |
| October 29 | 12:30pm | (RSS) Bill Acres
Devious Histories and the English Reformation |
| November 12 | 12:30pm | (McC) Rachael Young (Boston College)
Art and argument go hand in hand:' Street art as activism in the United Kingdom, 1980-1989 |
| November 19 | 12:30pm | (PDW)
Decolonizing the History Department |
| November 26 | 12:30pm | (RSS) Julia Berest
The Theme of Happiness in Russian Thought, 1860s-80s |
| December 3 | 12:30pm | (McC) Ryan McLachlan
Insignificance at Sea: The Battles of Coronel and the Falkland Islands in the British Press |