

EVENTS IN HISTORY- FALL 2019

Seminars & Workshops - Lawson 2270C (*unless noted)

September 5	12:30pm	(PDW) Nancy Rhoden and Rob MacDougall PDS on SSHRC applications
September 12	12:30pm	(McC) Michael Feagan Precarious Professionals: The Liminal Identity of Canadian Telegraph Operators, 1880-1914
September 13	2:00pm	Public History Program Open House Lawson Hall 2269
September 17	11:30am	Adam Matthews Digital Primary Source Awareness Day
September 19	12:30pm	(RSS) Matthew Wiseman Cold Soldiers: Medical Scientist Alan C. Burton and Military Experimentation in Cold War Canada
September 25	3:30pm	(MENARG) Dr. Anver Emon, University of History Islamic Law, Private International Law, and Child Abuse: History of Jurisdictional
September 26	12:30pm	(PDW) Nancy Rhoden, James Flath, Michelle Hamilton, Frank Schumacher, Rob Wardhaugh, Sara Poulin & Heather Ellis Performance in graduate seminars, on written work for the graduate program, and on exams; reflections and suggestions
October 1	2:30pm	Goodman Lecture: Prof. Philppa Levine, University of Texas at Austin All Will Be Revealed: The Politics of Nakedness and the Dilemma of British Morality Part 1 - Going Naked for the Lord: The Body Divine Great Hall, Somerville House Rm 3326
October 2	2:30pm	Goodman Lecture: Prof. Philppa Levine, University of Texas at Austin All Will Be Revealed: The Politics of Nakedness and the Dilemma of British Morality Part 2 - The Empire Has No Clothes: The Body Primitive Great Hall, Somerville House Rm 3326
October 3	2:30pm	Goodman Lecture: Prof. Philppa Levine, University of Texas at Austin All Will Be Revealed: The Politics of Nakedness and the Dilemma of British Morality Part 3 - To See Is To Know: The Body Observed Great Hall, Somerville House Rm 3326
October 10	12:30pm	(McC) Bryan McClure Memory, Memorials and Imperial Identity after the First World War

October 17	12:30pm	(RSS) Craig Simpson Lincoln & Memory: A New Interpretation of the Gettysburg Address
October 24	12:30pm	(PDW) Rob MacDougall, Carl Young, & Eli Nathans Giving meaningful feedback on undergraduate essays and a few thoughts on grades.
October 29	3:30pm	(MENARG) Associate Professor Ingrid Hehmeyer, Ryerson University The Transmission of Knowledge: Examples from Classical Arabic Medicine
October 31	12:30pm	(McC) Sarah Hart Muddying the Lens: Photographs of the Canadian Expeditionary Force
November 11	7:00pm	Bill Turkel Artificial Intelligence Central Library 251 Dundas St. 1st Floor Stevenson & Hunt
November 14	12:30pm	(RSS) Prof. Mychailo Wynnyckyj, National University of the Kyiv Mohyla Academy Ukraine's Maidan. Russia's War.
November 18	7:00pm	Marta Dyczok Information Warfare and History Central Library 251 Dundas St. 1st Floor Stevenson & Hunt
November 21	12:30pm	(PDW) TBD Planning your career after the graduate degree, including a visit to the Western Career Centre
November 25	7:00pm	Frank Schumacher Trump, Foreign Policy, & Global Chaos Central Library 251 Dundas St. 1st Floor Stevenson & Hunt
November 28	12:30pm	(McC) Jessi Gilchrist A peaceable solution': Anglo-Italian Imperial Cooperation in the Red Sea, 1926-1929
December 2	7:00pm	Eli Nathans The Nature of Nazism: Some Lessons from European History Central Library 251 Dundas St. 1st Floor Stevenson & Hunt
December 5	12:30pm	(RSS) Dr. Paul Sedra, Simon Fraser University Trumpism at Work in the Middle East: A Triumph for the Evangelical Lobby?
January 9	12:30pm	(PDW) Nancy Rhoden and Heather Ellis On finding balance and wellness as a graduate student.
January 16	12:30pm	(McC) Allen Priest TBD
January 23	12:30pm	(RSS) David Meren TBD

