

MINOR IN PUBLIC HISTORY

Checklist

Admission Requirements

- Completion of first-year requirements, including at least 0.5 course in History with a minimum mark of 60%.

Module

4.0 courses

Note that some courses have pre-requisites. Some courses have limited spots and thus require special application or have preference for their own departmental students. Please check with each department to ensure you have all needed prerequisites.

- 2.0 courses: History 2811F/G, History 3813E, History 3809F/G
 - 1.0 courses from: History 2816A/B or Digital Humanities 2130A/B, History 3801E, History 3901F/G, History 4810F/G
 - 1.0 courses from: History 2189A/B, History 4213F/G, Visual Arts History 2292F/G, Visual Arts History 3383A/B, Visual Arts History 3386F/G, Visual Arts History 4485E, Visual Arts History 4496A/B/Y, Visual Arts Studio 3383A/B/Y, Visual Arts Studio 4485E, Visual Arts Studio 4496A/B/Y
- See the History Department website for the approved list of courses from other departments such as Anthropology/Archaeology, Classics, Digital Humanities, and English and Cultural Studies, Geography, History and Visual Arts, with significant public history content, or another suitable course by special permission.

NOTE: Students may complete an Honors Specialization, or Major in History and also complete a Minor in Public History. No double counting is allowed: that is, courses taken to fulfill the requirements of this module cannot fulfill the requirements of any other modules at the university.

Recommended Course Progression in this Module:

Year 1: at least 0.5 course in History, and courses to fulfill university breadth requirements. For instance, students planning to take Visuals Arts 2292F in years 2-4 are strongly advised to take its prerequisites in year 1.

Year 2: History 2811F/G

Year 3: History 3813E and History 3809F/G

Year 4: 1.0 course from B, and 1.0 course from C if not taken earlier.
