This is a draft syllabus. Please see your course OWL site for the final syllabus.

Course Description:

Canadian popular culture: poor-quality imitation of American, or crucial element of Canadian identity, worthy of "Canadian Content" regulations and financial support? This course traces the 20th century evolution of "Canadian popular culture," offering glimpses into music, film, television, sport and more. What was enjoyed, why, and was it "Canadian?"

Antirequisite:

History 2124 F/G

Course Syllabus:

Canadian popular culture is sometimes derided as “inferior mimicry” and “derivative” of “pop culture” from south of the 49th parallel. Was (is?) that the case? We trace the evolution of “Canadian popular culture,” offering glimpses into music, film and television, sport, consumption and more. What was enjoyed, why, and was it “Canadian?” Scrutiny of “voices, images, and more reveal histories little appreciated, with both impressive originality and sycophantic imitation readily found. We will examine popular culture in various guises – from radio and television to film to music, sports and more. The character of that cultural product; the role of changing tastes and technologies; the influence of regulation versus free enterprise; national versus international perspectives; and the changing “mass” market all come into play. History 2124 challenges notions about Canadian popular culture, suggesting that “our” culture is more multifaceted than the caricatures provided by either nationalist “cheerleading” or dismissive rejection.

Course Materials:

There are no course texts – the 2124 OWL site included voice-supported Powerpoints, videos and other materials that will provide the “sounds and sites” of popular culture.
